

LANKELLY-FOWEY PLAYER'S CODE:

- Recognise and appreciate the efforts made by coaches, parents, match officials and administrators in providing the opportunity to play the game and enjoy the rugby environment.
 - Understand the values of loyalty and commitment to adults and team mates.
- Recognise that every player has a right to expect their involvement in rugby to be safe and free from all types of abuse.
 - Understand that if an individual or group of players feel they are not being treated in a manner that is acceptable, then they should tell an adult either at the Club or School or outside of the game.
 - Play because they want to do so, not to please coaches or parents.
- Remember that skill development, fun and enjoyment are the most important parts of the game.
 - Be attentive at all training and coaching sessions.
 - Work equally hard for themselves and their team - both will then benefit.
 - Recognise good play by all players on their team and by their opponents.
 - Be a sportsman - win with dignity, lose with grace.
- Play to the IRB Laws of the Game and accept, without question, all referees' decisions even if they appear to make a mistake.
- Control their emotions. Verbal or physical abuse of team mates, opponents, coaches, match officials or spectators is not acceptable.
- Treat all players, as they would like to be treated themselves. Do not interfere with, bully or take advantage of any player.
- Respect the facilities, training equipment and property of the club, fellow players and visitors to the club.
- Understand that they represent the club and its values at all training sessions, home and away fixtures and club functions.
