As a community centred club, Lankelly Fowey RFC are delighted to host a seven a side touch rugby festival on Sunday 2nd August 2009. We invite all of our local pubs, companies, sports clubs, associations and other groups to enter squads of up to 10 players. Those teams will compete in an afternoons competition culminating in Cup and Plate final.

To help the afternoon along, there will be a BBQ and refreshments available. We're also more than happy for people to bring along there own beer and wine to slake a well earned thirst.

In fact, we at Lankelly Fowey believe rugby isn't rugby without a couple of beers after. Therefore all teams who enter before the end of July will get two free pints per player (over 18's only). That's right.....free beer!!
